News Release

WOC PARTNERS WITH 3RD GREEN MARITIME FORUM (24-25 MARCH, HAMBURG)

Engaging with High-Level Shipping and Ports Event to Advance Science and Solutions in Support of Responsible Maritime Operations

14 February 2020

The Green Maritime Forum 2020 \(24-25 March, Hamburg\) gathers high-level experts and representatives from shipping, ports, maritime associations and leading service companies to consider the responsible expansion and development of maritime industries.

The 3rd Green Maritime Forum will focus on the challenges facing the greening of maritime industries, and identify innovative tools and practices needed to address those challenges. Key topics include:

- Smart Shipping Solutions: Latest shipping developments; Automation of operations and navigation; Innovation in green shipping technologies & design
- Innovative Ports – Securing Green Future: Innovations and technologies that future ports have to adopt; Ports' sustainability; Ports' automatization
- Alternative Marine Fuelling Solutions: Fuel and solar cell propulsion; Ultra-low sulphur, bio-LNG, CLNG, LPG; LNG bunkering; Fuel diversity
- HSSE from Shipowners' Perspective: Risk management – controlling safety & security on board; Developing and financing LNG in global shipping; Safety of the ship and its crew
- How Recent Regulations Shape the Future of Maritime: Certifications needed to enable operations; Environmental regulations, new policies and requirements
- Global Trends & Opportunities in the Maritime Industry
